Does the Accord manual only available on lowest end trim or available on many? I think the main contention point was that Honda manual options are only available on the lowest trim, so the intake is quite small. To my understanding, manual has become an acquired taste, and to those in the know only. Probably should be offered on a top trim as well.

2. My college kid has a Accord LX manual. No one borrows his car for the trek to local watering hole. A big comfort to me. 3. Police will tell you they hardly ever see a stolen manual car except high-end sports cars. Don't know whether manuals get an insurance premium break in cities, but they should.
